Explanatory Note

(This does not form part of the notification but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Sub-section (1) of section 74 of the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 (Central Act 34 of 2006) provides that the Central Government or the State Government with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of the High Court in their respective jurisdictions may, if consider expedient and necessary in the public interest, for the purposes of the trial of offences relating to grievous injury or death of the consumer for which punishment of imprisonment for more than three years has been prescribed under the said Act, constitute by notification in the Official Gazette, as many Special Courts as may be necessary for such area or areas and for exercising such jurisdiction, as may be specified in the notification. Therefore Government, in consultation with the Chief Justice of the High Court of Kerala have decided to constitute Special Courts for the said purposes and to designate the Additional District and Sessions Courts mentioned in the notification as the said Special Courts under the said Act in the area of jurisdiction as specified therein.

The notification is intended to achieve the above object.
